Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

MELTING AND REFINING DEPARTMENT,

Philadelphia, 13. July ——, 1885.

Sir,

By the advice of my friend, Mr Rowland Evans, of this city, I propose depositing the value of the three bars, which have disappeared from the Mint, with the Fidelity, or such well accredited Institution, until such time as the subject shall have been investigated by the Government authority, and reported on, when they shall be paid over according to the decision, that will be arrived at. In the meantime, I will make the amount payable to you or any other Government official you may select as the most appropriate recipient.

Very respectfully
